Jenny Boutle, Carole Ruse

Phil Gadd introduced Danni Berry, who is a Community Development Officer for Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved by the Group

Matters arising from that meeting –

Questionnaire – Phil Gadd

The Questionnaire had been completed and sent out to all the residents of Oakley. So far 672 (32.2% of households) had been completed and returned and more are expected.

Action: Elena Perez-Minana to e-mail spread sheet for entering data collected from the Questionnaires to Kay Pratchett & Alan East.

Action: Phil Gadd to deliver Questionnaires to Elena Perez-Minana.

Oakley Show – Group

Results from Young Persons in liaison with local schools project

Dorothy Collard

Action: Dorothy to create a display of responses of children

Pictorial presentation “More of this and less of that”

Kay Pratchett

Kay presented to the Group various photos that had been taken around the village. These were discussed with a view to entering them on display boards at the Show

Action: Kay to produce photos for the Show.

Presentation of specific successes by other village action groups to highlight what can be achieved

Elena Perez-Minana

Equipment –

Action – Phil Gadd to bring ‘Pop-Up’ Display

Action – Danni Berry to enquire for more display boards and folding tables

Action - Jean Gadd – line and clips for displays

Correspondence Received – Phil Gadd

Phil read out two e-mails that had been received offering help.

The first one was from a Richard Webb who had been involved in work on the original Village Design Statement. It was agreed that Mr Webb could be a useful member of our Group.

The second e-mail was from a David Trangmar who offered an idea for an Oakley event on ‘It’s a Knockout’ theme. It was decided that this item would be something for the new Community Association if it is formed.

Action – Discuss further at next meeting

Any Other Business
